

Our proposal for project 3 is to make a bunch of mini games, some games are for two players and some are for one. We originally planned for 4 but our GTA thought that it would be a better idea to do two for this project and expand this idea for project 4. We planned a program that allows you to choose from a menu and pick which game you would like to play.